

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS FOR ACCESSING THE STELLARIS 5 CONFOCAL MICROSCOPE

1. WHO CAN ACCESS TO THE EQUIPMENT

Faculty members/Doctoral Teaching Staff, Post-doc researchers, PhD students, project researchers. Master students must be accompanied by a supervisor/Post-doc researcher/PhD student and are not allowed to operate the equipment on their own. Before start using the equipment, a training is required (see point 3).

2. REQUESTING ACCESS

1. Submit a Request: To request access to the confocal microscope and receive instructions on completing the necessary form, please send an email to asazevedo@fe.up.pt.
2. Approval process: The request will be reviewed by Andreia S. Azevedo.
3. Confirmation: Upon approval, users will receive a confirmation email with the scheduled date for the training. Additionally, they will be provided with the e.Biofilm Imaging Laboratory manual and the Confocal Microscope manual, which should be reviewed prior to the training.

3. TRAINING REQUIREMENTS

All training requests will be scheduled according to the order in which the requests were made. The training sessions will take place on Tuesday afternoons; the first session, where the user should be accompanied by Andreia S. Azevedo, will take place on Thursdays.

Users must undergo training to ensure they understand all safety rules and can operate the equipment safely and effectively. Ideally, the user to be trained should schedule a sample analysis within a week or two of the training.

For their first session, users must be accompanied by Andreia S. Azevedo to assess their proficiency in using the equipment. The decision regarding whether a user is ready to operate the equipment independently will be determined on a case-by-case basis.

4. BOOKING

After completing the training, users can schedule equipment time by emailing asazevedo@fe.up.pt.
